Address The ———

QUESTION OF FILLING UP A VACANCY OF DEPUTY COMPTROLLER.

General and Revenue Secretariat | File No. C.S. 980 of 193 . [App. F. III—2

Serial No.

1 Mr. M. A. Rangachar, Deputy Comptroller to Government, is under orders of retirement with effect from 1st January 1934.

2 The question of filling up the vacancy is for orders. The post of Deputy Comptroller carries a pay of Rs.600-40-800. ~~Is to be open to the Civil Service as well as the Departmental service~~

3 Under Government Order No. 757-807/C.B. 210-23-1 dated 22nd September 1924 allocating posts in several Departments between the Civil Service and Non-Civil Service cadres, when there were only two posts of Deputy Comptrollers, "one of these posts will ordinarily be filled by a non-Civilian." One more post of Deputy Comptroller was subsequently added so that there are now three and these are at present held by the marginally noted officers. Of these Mr. A. N. Raghavachar was ~~recruited~~ from the Civil Service and the other two from the Departmental service.

1. Mr. A. N. Raghavachar. (Civil Service.)
2. Mr. M. A. Rangachar.
3. " K. R. Krishnaswami Iyengar.

Non-Civil Service.

4 The question whether the vacancy on the present occasion is to be filled up from the Civil Service or Non-Civil Service is still an open one and has to be decided now. As regards the officers available, a statement is put up showing the names and other particulars of Civil Service Officers who have completed Accounts training and of the Non-Civil Service Assistant Comptrollers.

5) It is seen from the Statement that there are several fully qualified Civil Service Officers who have been drawing Rs.450 for several years past, and while some of them have been promoted as Senior Assistant Commissioners (on Rs.500 to Rs.600) there are others who have not yet had the chance. The post of Deputy Comptroller is one carrying a pay of Rs.600-40-800. It is also submitted that in case a Civil Service Officer is permanently promoted as Deputy Comptroller, he will cease to have a lien on the Civil Service Cadre, unless specially ordered otherwise. Mr. A. N. Raghavachar has no lien on the Civil Service and Mr. M. A. Singrachar was not given a lien, but Mr. S. Shamanna was specially allowed a lien on the Civil Service when appointed Railway Auditor.

6) Reference is invited in this connection to the Comptroller's Un-Official Note in the collection put up (C.B. 47-33-1) making certain proposals for improving the prospects of the Subordinate Account Service. He has suggested therein that in case the vacancy of Deputy Comptroller be filled up by recruiting a new officer from the Civil Service, one of the present Civil Service Assistant Comptroller may be withdrawn so as to release one vacancy for promotion from the subordinate ranks.

Q (para 38)

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

WD 70—GBPM—60,000—13-8-31.

7) The points for orders are:-

(1) Whether a Civil Service Officer is to be selected or a Non-Civil Service Officer and in case a Civil Service Officer is selected, whether he is to be specially given a lien in the general cadre or may be removed from the cadre of Assistant and Senior Assistant Commissioners.

(2) Whether any corresponding vacancy in the Assistant Comptroller's grade is to be released to the Subordinate Account Service by transferring one of the existing Assistant Commissioners in the Department to the general, as suggested by the Comptroller.

Submd. GSR 10/11/33

8) (1) Should the vacancy go to a Civil Service Officer or a non-Civil Service Officer.

There are three places of Deputy Comptrollers and Government have not fixed the proportion that should be reserved for each of the two classes of officers referred to above beyond stating in the Government Order dated 22nd September 1924 that "one of these posts will ordinarily be held by a Non-Civilian". At present only one place is held by a Civil Service Officer and there is nothing therefore to prevent another place going to a Civil Service Officer.

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

WD 70—GBPM—60,000—13-8-31.

9) A reference to the list put up by the Branch will show that while the most senior of the Non-Civil Service Officers reached his 450 two years and nine months ago and another within the last 12 months three officers of the Civil Service trained in accouts reached their 450 over five years ago. One of them has reached Rs.600 and the other two Rs.500. Five other Civil Service Officers, also trained in accounts have reached Rs.450 four to five years ago. It appears to me that the vacant place should go to a Civil servant.

10) If this is approved, the place has to be given to one of the following 3 officers:-

1. Mr. M. A. Srinivasan.
2. " J. Appaji Gowda.
3. " M. Viraraj Urs.

Mr. Srinivasan is already getting Rs.600 and is in the running for a Deputy Commissioner's place. He may therefore be excluded. The other two officers are Messrs. Appaji Gowda and Viraraj Urs. The Deputy Commissioners under whom these officers are working may be asked to consult them and report whether they would like to have their name considered. Who ever gets the place will have to give up his lien in the Civil Service.

11) (2) In case a Civil Service Officer is selected as Deputy Comptroller, whether one of the Civil Service Assistant Comptroller should be withdrawn.

This has been suggested by the Comptroller in his Un-Official Note in C.B. 47-33-1 but no decision was arrived at on this point. There seems to be some practical difficulty in giving effect to the suggestion. In view of the fact that recently one more post of Assistant Comptroller was made available to the subordinate service and there are now at least 7 out of 10 places of Assistant Comptrollers open to the Audit Department and at least 1 out of 3 Deputy Comptrollers, it cannot be said that their chances of promotion are unduly restricted. I think we need not interfere with the arrangements already arrived at in regard to the relative proportion of Assistant Commissioners in the cadre of Assistant Comptrollers.

12) I agree with the Chief Secy that on the retirement of Mr Ramachar, the place of Dy Comptr should be a Civil Service appt. Mr Viraraj may be selected for the post. He is nearly 46 years of age and there is little chance of his being (altho' a Dy Comptr) (altho' some who has worked as Mahr appointments, there is no need to take his name out of the Civil service cadre). I also agree that there is no need to reconstitute the 3 Civil service appts

N. B.—Should routine notes be written on small slips, the notes must be copied, or slips pasted on this form.

Submitted to His Highness.

21) The accompanying papers relate to the question of filling up a vacancy in the grade of Deputy Comptrollers, consequent on the prospective retirement of Mr. M.A. Rangachar with effect from 1st January 1934.

22) The post which carries a pay of Rs.600-40-800 per mensem is one which is open to both the officers of the Civil Service and those belonging to the Non-Civil Service cadre of the Account Department. From the statement in the file showing the particulars of service, pay, etc., of officers belonging to the Civil Service as well as Non-Civil Service eligible for promotion to the grade of Deputy Comptroller, it will be seen that while there are Civil Service officers fully trained in Accounts, who have reached the maximum pay of Assistant Commissioner (Rs.450/-) five years ago, the most senior among the Assistant Comptrollers in the Non-Civil Service cadre reached the pay of Rs.450/- only about 2¾ years ago. In the circumstances, the Members of Council and I are of opinion that the vacancy on the present occasion has to be given to one of the senior Civil Service officers qualified for the post. The most senior of these is Mr. M.A. Srinivasan. He is a provisionally permanent Senior Assistant Commissioner drawing Rs.600/- and is in the running for a Deputy Commissioner's place, and his name need not be considered in this connection. The officer next in rank is Mr. J. Appaji Gowda, who is acting as a Senior Assistant Commissioner. He is a comparatively young officer who has prospects of preferment in the general line and it is also understood that he is not keen on going back to the Account Department. The next officer is Mr. M. Viraraj Urs, who also is now acting as Senior Assistant Commissioner. He is nearly 46 years old and the chances of his promotion to the grade of Deputy Commissioner are remote. He is well qualified for the post and I am confident he will do well. He may, therefore, be appointed as Deputy Comptroller. Ordinarily an officer promoted as Deputy Comptroller ceases to have a lien on the cadre of the Civil Service. Mr. M. Viraraj Urs is however an experienced officer who has served as a Sub Division Officer and as a Magistrate and there seems to be no need to remove his name from the list of Assistant Commissioners.

(33) In this connection, the Comptroller has urged that, with a view to providing openings to officers of the subordinate Account service whose prospects have been adversely affected by the recent retrenchments, one of the posts of Assistant Comptroller now held by a Civil Service officer may be released in favour of the Departmental service in case the post of Deputy Comptroller is given to a Civilian officer. Recently, one additional post of Assistant Comptroller was made available to the Departmental men, and the Members of Council and I do not consider it necessary to curtail the number of Civil Service Assistant Comptrollers further.

R (Para 35)

(34) Gracious sanction of His Highness is solicited to the recommendations made above to promote Mr. M. Viraraj Urs, acting Senior Assistant Commissioner, as Deputy Comptroller and to permit him to retain his lien on the general cadre.

I have the honor to forward, herewith, an application of Mr. B.S. Raghavendra Rao, M.A. (Hons) Assistant Commissioner, Madhugiri Sub Division requesting that his claims may be considered and that he may be appointed as Deputy Comptroller. The work of Mr. Raghavendra Rao as Revenue Sub Division Officer has been very satisfactory. It is true, as he says, that he has so far suffered in having been superceded by some of his juniors. In view of this, his claims in the Financial Department deserve very favourable consideration as he has worked in it without interruption for several years & earned favourable opinions In view of his prospects in that Department I do not want to come in the way of his being taken to the Financial Department again. I therefore recommend that his prayer may be favourably considered.

Sir,

I have the honour to request you to kindly submit this my representation to Government with your strong support.

I understand that the retirement of Mr. M.A. Ranga Char, Deputy Comptroller has been ordered and I request that my claims to that post may kindly be considered.

I was appointed to the Civil Service in 1918 having been placed 2nd in the Competetive examination. Due to no fault of mine, I was continued in the Education Department that year till about the time of Departmental examination and having been ill next year, I was superseded by a number of juniors for not having passed Civil Part II within the chances allowed although really I had only one chance. My repeated requests to Government for restoration of my rank have unfortunately been unavailing.

I was posted to the Comptroller's Office in 1920 and - barring the periods of Deputation to the City Improvement Trust Board, under the Private Secretary in connection with the the Butler Commission and to the Mysore Bank, I have been all along in the FinanceDepartment until transferred to the Revenue Department in March 1931 and have therefore put in the longest service among the Civilian Officers who have served in the Finance Department. Successive Officers under whom I served in that Department have reported well of me and the same has been kindly recognised by Government more than once. In particular, the work done by me in connection with the State Loans and resource section of the Comptroller's Office and in the State Huzur Treasury were appreciated by one and all. Even in the Electric Department although there was friction between the Financial Assistant and the Chief Electrical Engineer, Mr. S.G. Forbes has reported more than once about my good work and was pleased to recommend me very strongly for a Deputy Comptroller's place.

In the Revenue Department, I have been fortunate in earning the good opinion of the three successive Deputy - Commissioners whom I have served. I understand also that the Dewan Saheb and other State Officers who toured in this Sub Division were favourably impressed with my work, especially in connection with the Distress of 1931-32, Village Panchayets and Village Improvement. The prompt action taken taken to save Kallembella and other tanks when they were in danger has also been appreciated.

When I am not unwilling to continue in the Revenue Department, I beg to state that the loss of Rank I have suffered still hurts me and is a constant humiliation to me. This humiliation would be worse if I am to serve officers who were junior to me and who have by an unfortunate accident superseded me.

In view of the above and of my long service in the Finance Department and my work there and of the fact that I was the first to be absorbed in a permanent vacancy among the officers posted there along with me, I request I may kindly be given the vacancy of Deputy Comptroller.
